

Three Arrested Here on 'Medicine' Charge

'Cure for Cancer' Included

Three men said by police to have dispensed a fake "cure-all" to Southern California sufferers were arrested in Palm Springs last night and booked on suspicion of conspiracy to unlawfully practice medicine.

Arrested were George Oscar Mellon, 58, Palm Springs real estate man; George Winston Davies, 57, Beverly Hills real estate man; and Dr. Anton Raman Schenk, 40, Tijuana physician.

POLICE SAID that Mellon, born in Stockholm, Sweden, is a United States citizen, but Davies is a British citizen, born in Liverpool, England, and Dr. Schenk is a Mexican citizen, formerly a native of Mikles, Czechoslovakia, and one-time officer in the German army.

The arrest followed a lengthy investigation of some two years by David May, chief medical investigator for the State Medical Board, who said that the three men were preparing to open an office in Palm Springs.

ALL THREE MEN were taken into custody about 8:30 last night at a home at 1160 Asher Drive, where May and two female agents approached the men "to take the cure."

The men discussed the taking of eight shots "in order to clean the body of all illness," and asked for a "contribution" of $2,000. The men also said the "shots would cure cancer" and advertised the treatment also as a "rejuvenating elixir."

IN COOPERATION with Palm Springs detectives Matt Colac, Herb Shalies and Larry Carter, a listening station was set up at a home near the residence, and as the men started preparing a "shot" for the medical investigator, the arrests were made.

Police said that Mellon and Dr. Schenk have "been friends for some time," and that Mellon has made several trips across the border. The doctor, however, disclaims any knowledge of the setup here, saying that he had only arrived in Palm Springs last night to learn of the program.

Mellon was released about midnight last night on $1,000 bail, and is scheduled to appear in Palm Springs Justice Court at 9 a.m., Tuesday, for arraignment.

The other two men are still in custody.

A doctor said if the shot had struck a little higher it could have caused death.

COLORADO RIVER COUNSEL CITES NEED FOR MORE WATER

Ely Avoids Bond Issue 'Politics' in Talk Here

Northcutt Ely, the chief counsel for California's defense in the Arizona vs. California water fight before the United States Supreme Court, took a straight-down-the-line legal position in the presentation here Saturday to an area-wide meeting of persons interested in the southern California water problem, and carefully avoided the political implications of the Proposition One water bond question.

Ely did not ignore the issue, indeed, in the meeting called by Democratic Representative D. S. Saund, and somewhat seconded by Attorney General Stanley Mosk. Ely emphasized that if California were to get all it hoped for from the current suit brought by Arizona over acre-feet apportionment from the dwindling flow of the Colorado, California water needs would not be met from the Colorado.

A MAJOR REASON is that Upper Basin states will come into their own, with 7.5 million acre feet pledged them under the Colorado Compact, which may — in California eyes — supercede the Santa Fe compact. At least Ely repeated that California does not propose to back out on the Compact.

But the incisive attorney — who applied the facts to bolster the Mosk-Saund plea for support of the state defense and the administrative bond issue — explained that California's own requests in the suit would be approximately 800,000 acre feet less than capacity of the 5,400,000 acre feet California facilities for diverting water from the Colorado.

ELY CALLED THE facts for both sides of the suit, and cited the formula proposal of Supreme Court Special Master Simon Rifkind as an invitation to California suits against Upper Basin states. But at the same time, he pointed out that Arizona has no other source for water, while California

Six more winners were expected to surrender later today or early this week.

U. S. NOW LEADER IN MEN'S STYLES

For the first time in history, styles for the American male are world leaders, with overseas innovations such as the continental suit and bulky sweaters taking a back seat in the fashion parade.

Men's styles, which have run the gamut from every thing from leopard skins to jewels, silks and satins have now been revived in a pattern that derives its inspiration from Joseph's coat of many colors.

THIS IS AN outline of men's styles as they were shown this weekend at the annual MAGIC-BAGIC convention under way at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel.

The well-dressed American man is now a style leader in any part of the world in which he travels," Ralph Jones, president of the Men's Apparel Guild in California, reported.

THE ACCEPTED suit style for the coming year is the American Continental, which features the trim look with light weight or iridescent materials and in gien

Spending Policy Attacked

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Russia pressed its campaign against Secretary-general Dag Hammarskjold on the budgetary front today, accusing him of "extravagant spending" to support U. S. policies in the Congo and in Laos.

The Soviet attack on Hammarskjold's spending policies came in the Administrative and Budgetary Committee while the secretary-general was defending in the General Assembly in the U. N. Congo as a responsible act in a desperate emergency.

INDIA, HOWEVER, declared in the assembly that there is no alternative to the Congolese "running their affairs in their own way." Soviet Delegate A. A. Roschin told the 99-nation fiscal committee Russia "categorically objects" to Hammarskjold's request for a $67.5 million budget for 1961. He said the budget should be "stabilized" at about $50 million.

ROSCHEIN SAID U. N. budgets had risen an "excessive" $20 million since 1954. He charged that Hammarskjold had "followed the U. S. line" in organizing U. N. missions to such areas as Laos, Guinea and the Congo which were "political" rather than administrative.

Roschin reiterated Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's demand for a three-man presidium to replace Hammarskjold as the top executive of the United Nations and demanded that the Swedish diplomat's expenditures be a "while be curbed" so that he may not follow his policy of supporting some members of the United Nations to the detriment of others."

HAMMARSKJOLD TOOK the floor at the outset of this morning's General Assembly session to reply to attacks delivered last week by President Sekou Toure of Guinea. Shortly afterward, Indian Defense Minister V. K. Krishna Menon used the Congo as his keynote in delivering the closing speech of the assembly's annual general, or policy, debate.

India and 14 smaller nations today submitted a resolution, to be considered later in the 199-nation Political Committee, seeking ways to cool East-West tempers and bring peace to the world.

HIJINKS BANNED FROM AMERICAN LEGION PARADE

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Nearly 60,000 members of the American Legion will step out today in their annual convention parade under orders from Legion officials to hold down the hijinks.

Electric canes, water pistols, female impersonators and firecrackers have been banned from the spectacle, along with "any presentation or representation either immoral or in bad taste."

Though racy behavior has been barred, the parade is expected to provide multiple thrills for an estimated 250,000 spectators from its start to its end about eight hours later.

AFTER SUNSET

Desert Press Club Opens New Quarters

By GEORGE LAINE

The lid finally came off for the Desert Press Club's new headquarters in the Biltmore Hotel Saturday and I guess they'll be talking about that party for some time to come.

There was a solid turnout for the affair which would seem to indicate that there is a strong feeling of camaraderie amongst members of the Desert Press Club.

BY THE TIME your reporter got there — at about 6:45 p.m. — 15 minutes "late" — the place was bursting at the seams.

DPC Proxy George Ringwald had charge of things completely. Desert Sun Women's Editor Hildy Crawford had DPC Founder Elsinore Machris ensconced in a booth with Charles and Kitty Irwin, and Mrs. Richard Levin, wife of the Biltmore exec, was also on hand at the event.

DPC vice presidents Cliff Brown and Jerry Brittingham were helping House Committee Co-Chairman Cliff Mill with the front door — and help he needed, since about 200 Press Clubbers, wives, dates and guests poured through the doors of the DPC during the evening's program.

THE TEMPOS, who made such an impression on the patrons over at Sheppard's Restaurant in White-water, furnished dinner and dance music and there were many Press Clubbers who took the group on the dance invitation. Lots of people matched steps with Tony and Teresa Capps, a couple of pros who were well-watched by ring-siders.

It's difficult to mention all of the action at the affair but there were some activities that still remain fresh to mind.

Like Jan King, selling chances on her raccoon coat — with the winner taking a beautiful patio chair donated for the party by Charleston's. Like Phat Graettinger, the club's dean emeritus, holding forth from a table in the banquet room and attended by Shirley Henry, Mary Carlin, and ever so many more. And so on.

THE FOOD WAS excellent (and the price was right), the drinks — excellently prepared by olde master Jimmy Shipp — superb and the drawings run like clockwork.

It marked an excellent beginning for the DPC's arrangement with the Biltmore Hotel and you can bet it'll mean some happy times in the offing for all hands.

In fact, it was more or less a warm-up for next Sunday's big affair — a joint cocktail party-dinner for the visiting Presidential press corps attending President Eisenhower. The Chamber of Commerce and the Biltmore are joining the Press Club in sponsorship of that one and it ought to mark a fitting climax to the three-day stay of the newsmen in our city.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Racquet Club got off swinging Saturday night . . . Gladys Stryker reported in between pancake bites at Uncle John's Sunday that the place was jammed . . . See Hildy's report tomorrow on it all . . .

LERNER TAKES OVER AFTER HART AILS

TORONTO, Ont. (UPI) — Lyricist Alan Jay Lerner has taken over major responsibility for getting the new musical "Camelot" in shape for its Broadway bow Nov. 26. The show's director, Moss Hart, suffered a heart attack Friday.

Lerner, Hart, and composer Frederick Loewe were the trio responsible for the smash hit "My Fair Lady," now in its fourth year on Broadway. "Camelot," their new musical, is being tried out here.

The director's heart attack came only hours before the scheduled departure of Lerner from a hospital where he has been under treatment for 10 days for a bleeding ulcer.

Hart, 53, was not expected to rejoin the show before it reaches Broadway. His doctor said he would be confined to bed for at least a month and would not be able to work from his bedside.

Oct. 25 Meeting To Be Attended By Desert Bankers

Jesse W. Tapp, chairman of Bank of America's board of directors, will speak on the economic outlook for the nation and California at the fall meeting of the bank's San Bernardino and Riverside officers' group Tuesday, Oct. 25, at the Elks Lodge in Riverside.

The announcement was made by William E. Shuss, Lake Arrowhead branch manager, who will preside as chairman of the group.

OFFICERS FROM THE Palm Springs and Palm Desert branches will be among the estimated 200 officers attending from 33 branches throughout the San Bernardino Riverside area and from Los Angeles Headquarters.

In his explanation of the various factors affecting the nation's present economic health, Tapp will say that it "should not be overlooked that the level of business is substantially better than the level of business sentiment."

HE WILL ADD THAT "even though the adjustments ahead may prove to be a bit more troublesome than those of previous post-war recessions, there is little ground for anticipating a prolonged interruption of our economic progress in the early 1960's."

Officers representing the Palm Springs and Palm Desert branches will include: Fred Ingram, Harold West, G. H. Mitchell, Dean Wolfe and Bob Baker from Palm Springs Branch; Phil Franklin Newton Johnson and Jack Brown from the Palm Desert Branch.

$183-MILLION BUDGET FOR UC OKEH

BERKELEY (UPI) — The University of California regents approved a $183 million budget Friday for the 1961-62 fiscal year, and school officials reported enrollment on the school's seven campuses is at an all time high.

Vice President H. R. Wellman said enrollment totals 49,179—and cracks the 48,943 record set in 1948, the peak year of enrollment of veterans returning from World War II.

Of the $183,805,000 budget approved by the regents, $130 million would come from state taxes and the rest from Student fees, federal grants and other sources. The budget, which now goes to the state legislature for approval, represents a 12 per cent increase over this year.

'Yankees, Yes--Russians, No'

KEY WEST, FLORIDA—There is a nascent Cuban-American uprising against Fidel Castro which needs more attention than it is getting. The younger of these writers has researched the movement, interviewed some of its members at Key West, the highly Latinized and nearest-to-Cuba city in the United States. The recent alleged "invasion" of Cuba last week by 27 adventurers is in the fading tradition of Caribbean filibustering—romantic but ineffectual. The growth of an offshore, Cuban-American resistance movement with the capability of exciting the American public and even influencing American policy, is far more promising.

FOR THE OUSTING of Fidel, while desirable, would be insufficient and might be disastrous. There are men behind him who are closer to Russia and far more adept at fashioning a model Communist satellite. Castro must go—but he must be succeeded by a pro-Western Cuban who is able to do for the island something which compares with what Munoz y Marin has done for Puerto Rico.

In Key West today there are about 140 active members of Christian Anti-Communist Group, Inc. In addition there are about 100 teenage members. The Group's outlook is hemispheric and democratic. It backs the Monroe Doctrine with the motto: "Yankees, yes; Russians, no!"

MOST OF THE members are low on money and education, high on concern for their families both in Cuba and the United States, devoted to their Catholic Church religion and ties.

Many members work in Key West for the two big Federal employers—the Navy and Post Office. Others are day laborers and small merchants. A few are wealthy.

Charles M. Reyes, who runs a small grocery on Duval Street, is vice president of the Christian Anti-Communist. A first-generation American, with parents who were born in Cuba, Mr. Reyes is short, middle-aged, fiery for his cause, and disappointed in the unwillingness of the Eisenhower Administration to be more helpful in liberating Cuba.

THE FBI, WHICH often looked the other way when arms were being smuggled out of Florida to overthrow the crude but pro-American dictator Batista, is now pouncing on weapons with which the Islanders could make things very uneasy for Castro. Mr. Reyes says that the Federal Communications Commission, aided by the local sheriff, blocked the licensing of a Key West radio transmitter that was intended to beam instructions and propaganda to liberation-minded Cubans. Senator Kennedy recently charged that the Voice of America was doing nothing in this regard.

CASTRO HIMSELF appears to be the best recruiting sergeant for the Christian Anti-Communist group. When the bearded rebel leader of the July 26th Movement first came to power, most Cubans were understandably proud of him. He had won a good fight. He was the champion of peasants. Cubans saw in him, as did many Americans, the rise of another Simon Bolivar.

Pro-Castro sentiment remained strong even after the early indications of his Soviet ties. Norman D. Artman, editor and publisher of the Key West Citizen, used to receive furious phone calls and anonymous hate letters whenever he printed anything against Fidel.

BUT FIDEL HAS fixed that. His ardent love affair with Russia-Chinese Communism, climaxed by his recent antics at the United Nations, has reduced his Key West supporters from several thousand to a hard core which is estimated at no higher than 80.

It is no longer fashionable, and not altogether safe, for a Latin-American to boast of his Castro connections. Even the school children are suffering from the politics of their parents, and a few U. S. mothers forbid their offspring to play with Cubans because of the Communist infection.

MR. REYES HOPES that the Christian Anti-Communist will become nation-wide. He is very reticent about the present activities of his group within Cuba—the island being connected to Key West by twice a day air flights as well as by ferry. But it is significant that the Group's headquarters, a large if run-down building across the street from the Post Office, is proudly and beautifully decorated with American flags.

Mr. Reyes feels that Cuba will be free when the Stars and Stripes flies there—either over an associate of the American Commonwealth or as an American State.

Position of Influence on the Seesaw

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Since now we're smack dab in newspaper week, let me remind you, Ads help you hit peak.

Now that's just about as brash a plug as I've ever blasted out of this old typewriter. But this being National Newspaper Week and so many people, outside of thrifty housewives, thinking of newspapers just for the information they convey, it seems as good a time as any to put in a boost for the boys and girls who labor in the Classified and Display departments. They are of extreme importance to your well-being.

RALPH WALDO EMERSON, I believe it was, once said "Let a man write a better book or build a better mouse trap and the world will beat a path to his door."

I'd like to disagree with that. Who's going to know about that mouse trap if he doesn't advertise?

Anyway, this man goes out to his garage, hauls down his do-it-yourself kit, and starts building a mouse trap.

IN THE MEANTIME, he has no path to his front door. Instead of tinkering with a mouse trap, why doesn't he get some ready mix concrete and build his own path to the front door?

But let's forget that misguided planning.

Let's assume he build a better mouse trap.

HE SITS DOWN and waits for the world to beat a path to his door. Too lazy to build his own. Nothing happens.

So he calls up the Gazette. "Hey, Joe, how about a little story? I've got a mouse trap that's really swinging."

"Don't even have to buy cheese. It's got a yellow marble in it sprayed with cheese scent."

"YOU MEAN I should spend money advertising? It's news, man, big news. Besides I need a path to my door."

"All right, how much would this 250-word outline of my invention cost in a one column wide, one inch ad? And maybe a column story to go with it."

"What! It would take a two column, ten inch deep ad at how much? Why, you robber! I thought you and I were going together!"

SO HE GOES BACK to his do-it-yourself kit in his garage. His mouse trap isn't catching any mice. There's no path to his door. Nobody's going to buck those weeks, rocks and that sand.

In the meantime, some other guy has figured out a way to discourage mice without the danger of bashed fingers or the screams of the wife when one of the little you-know-whats gets the works in the middle. He calls Joe, too. And advertises.

Pretty quick he doesn't have to worry about that path to his door. He's got enough cash to hire the best contractor to lay a pretty colored walk.

And pay for a winter vacation in Palm Springs.

STAN DELAPLANE: Interview Completo

"Welcome to Rio," said the Brazilian newspaper lady. "I would like to interview you."

"Fire away," I said gallantly—flipping away the last cigarette and refusing the handkerchief blindfold. "By the way, what is this water situation?"

IT HAS BEEN raining seven soaking days in Rio de Janeiro. Water is generally rationed in homes and hotels. But now—

"Now it is said that the problem is the pumps are flooded. Many things are being corrected."

"Thank you. And one other thing before we start. Would you explain to me about the traffic?"

"THAT IS ONE OF the things being corrected. You see the reason the traffic is bad is because of the lotacao."

The lotacao is the very heart of Rio's transportation system. It is a yellow jitney sort of bus, holding maybe twenty-five people. It is driven by a madman. A squadron of these yellow perils barreling down on you hell for leather—for a pedestrian has no rights in Rio except to dodge.

SUCH A SIGHT is enough to make you give up crossing streets. "He drives that way," she said, "because the lotacao driver makes a percentage of the fares he collects. Therefore, he cannot wait for the red lights to change."

"My dear lady, everybody runs through the red lights here."

"BECAUSE THE lotacao driver does it. Also it is dangerous to halt in front of a lotacao. He might run into you. But it is being corrected."

The public rides the lotacao with a certain gay fatalism. At rush times the twenty-five capacity doubles and people spill from the windows.

(THERE IS AN ornate statue here of Poseidon driving a sea chariot. Mermaids and dryads hang over the side in marble abandon. Brazilians call it "the lotacao completo"—the full lotacao.)

A few years ago authorities took a lot of lotacao drivers and gave them an intelligence test. They found that 90 per cent were low grade. Some were positively imbecilic. Nothing was done about it. It was an intelligent intelligence test and showed that the city fathers were on their toes.

AS FOR THE drivers they were driving. So maybe you didn't need intelligence to pilot a lotacao.

"Is that story true?"

"Maybe. I think all lotacao drivers are neurotic. But so are school teachers."

"Brazilian school teachers are neurotic?"

"All school teachers. That is why they have to take a long summer vacation. It is the result of their work."

"WHAT ABOUT Brazilian husbands?" I asked.

"They do not marry for companionship," she said, "therefore most Brazilian women are unhappy."

"Are they more unhappy than American wives?"

"NO. BUT FOR different reasons. American men marry for companionship. But they let the wife run everything. No woman likes that. However, most Brazilian women envy the American wife and many would like an American husband."

"Why don't they get a divorce?"

"YOU CAN GET a divorce here. But you cannot remarry—except in another country. Then your marriage is accepted but not recognized. But if you do not like the second marriage, you can get another divorce here."

"Is that being corrected?" I asked.

She said she did not think so. "But thank you for the interview."

"Thank you!" I said—since we were correcting things.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

New York 19 Special

HOLLYWOOD—New title of Harry Belafonte's fall TV special is New York 19. Harry will head a cast of singers and dancers toasting the potpourri of races and nationalities who live in the neighborhood of New York Postal Zone No. 19.

Dorothy Provine, after a year in Warner-TV's series, The Alaskans, is now getting $650 a week. But when another studio wanted to borrow her for a week's work in a one-shot special Dorothy's bosses put a price of $10,000 on Miss Provine. No complaint from the starlet, however; after all, the Warner series made her a star.

RORY CALHOUN will vacation from his series, The Texan, to shoot a movie for Metro in London: The Secrets of Monte Cristo.

Charles Boyer knows an unemployed actress who has entered so many contests during her many layoffs, she now talks like this: "Well, in 10 words or less I'll tell you..."

Even the pilot films for proposed TV shows get name changes these days—just like movies. Bob Sterling's Trouble at His Heels pilot for Screen Gems is now The Man in the Middle.

THE KINGSTON Trio's Christmas album will include Go Where I Send Thee, a hymn that was originally part of the Jewish Passover service.

Bischoff-Diamond Productions managed Mike (Cochise) Ansara for a non-Redskin romp as a villain in a movie, The Big Bankroll. Producers are also dickering Alan Ladd to play the part of mobster Arnold Rothstein who, among other accomplishments, helped fix the 1919 World Series...

Alan Ladd as a mobster? Why not? He played one in his first starring picture, This Gun for Hire.

PRODUCER SAM Katzman called off his Waikiki vacation to prepare his next picture, Cypress Gardens. No, it's no kin to Esther Williams' recent high-rated TV special of the same name, it's a movie, but it'll be shot in the same place as Esther's—Cypress Gardens, Fla.

The Civil War is over for Lew Ayres, after a spree of three teevee shows in a row on that subject. He has signed for a comedy caper called A Thief or Two, a segment of The June Allyson Show.

HOLLYWOOD HOTSTUFF M-G-M is going all out to make How the West Was Won the biggest movie ever shot. It'll be filmed in Cinerama, the budget will be $20,000,000 (which is $3,000,000 more than the same studio spent on Ben-Hur) and will star (according to present plans) Glenn Ford and Debbie Reynolds. Needless to say, the boys in Leo the Lion's publicity lair will blame it as "the Western to end all Westerns," and the title tells the story: Cowboys and Indians galore!

Jayne Mansfield's co-star in Fox's It Happened in Athens, now shooting in Greece, is—now get this!—an actress named Xenia Calogeropoulos. Miss Calogeropoulos is billed under Jayne but over Bob Mathias and Nico Minardos, the male stars.

FRANK CAPRA put in a call to Claire Trevor to play the role originated by the late May Robson in Frank's remake of Lady for a Day, now titled Pocketful of Miracles. He made the original for Columbia Pictures. This one rolls at Paramount.

Susan Hayward, Audrey Hepburn and Liz Taylor are all agog about starring in The 27th Wife, new novel by Irving (Chapman Report) Wallace. It's about Brigham Young's 27th wife who fought to make polygamy illegal (so SHE'S the one!).

A CANADIAN FILM syndicate will shoot Frogman Spy in England. No star yet. The sensational script claims that Frogman Crabbs wasn't killed by the Reds, as reported, but was whisked off to Vladivostok and brainwashed—and that he's now teaching behind the Iron Curtain.

Elvis Presley and his manager, Col. Tom Parker, popped for a swingin' set—closing party for the cast and crew of Flaming Star at Fox Studios. Their gifts to the gang consisted of albums of Sir Swivel's songs from G. I. Blues, produced at Paramount Studios. The stunt pleased the Foxites not a bit.

FIREFIGHTERS FOILED

FT. CAMBELL, Ky. (UP)—Fire Chief Robert J. Ogden gathered members of the Command and Control Battalion together to show them how to put out a fire in an Army barracks.

He couldn't do it. Workers who built the scale-model barracks for the demonstration had used wood that was too wet to burn.

DALLAS, Tex. (UP)—Mrs. Mildred Sale of the Southwestern Artists Service spoke at this week's meeting of the Dallas Jazz Society about jazz and jazz musicians.

"If you see a father and his son together, it's ten to one that the bearded one is the son," she said.

"YOU CAN GET a divorce here. But you cannot remarry—except in another country. Then your marriage is accepted but not recognized. But if you do not like the second marriage, you can get another divorce here."

"Is that being corrected?" I asked.

She said she did not think so. "But thank you for the interview."

Within a week county road crews will begin work on repairing the Palm Springs-Edom road, it was announced today by County Supervisor Robert E. Dillon. The statement came in answer to several requests for immediate work on the road and in consideration of the fact the high school bus has twice been stalled on it because of its present poor condition.

At Palm Springs Theater—Lucille Ball, James Ellison, Robert Coote, Virginia Vale, Emma Dunn and Elaine Shepard in "You Can't Fool Your Wife."

NORMAN FARFA started work today on one of the largest and most unique establishments yet inaugurated in America's winter playground. Ground was broken for the modern saddle livery, where Norman will maintain a large portion of his string of 200 selected horses and ponies. The main building will be of Spanish and Indian design, 400 feet long by two stories high. Closely adjacent to the main building is to be a club house adjoining a standard size polo field, a miniature zoo-aviary, and parking area.

A Startling Analogy

NEW YORK—A startling analogy between the state of the human species during this cold war and that of laboratory dogs on which Russian physiologist Ivan Petrovich Pavlov experimented years ago was drawn by commentator John Daly of the American Broadcasting Company in a speech before the British-American Chamber of Commerce the other day.

Mr. Daly used as his theme a letter sent to the Times of London by the noted British physician, William Sargant. Dr. Sargant equates Soviet propaganda methods with the theories and practices of Pavlov.

PAVLOV, BY ringing a bell during his dogs' meals, accustomed them to associate such sound with food. In time he could deprive them their food, ring the bell, and they'd drool.

He then introduced a series of other signals, giving or withholding food erratically as well. The animals, trying desperately to understand, became excited, neurotic, hysterical and finally submissive and apathetic—except for those who learned to ignore all signals and thus erect a shield around their sanity.

WE PRIDE ourselves on thinking and acting logically," ABC's brilliant young vice president in charge of news and public affairs said. "We accept certain standards (or signals) at face value. We're inclined to accept a man's word as truth, to expect reasonable behavior from others. By Soviet lights, this is to be our undoing."

"Take an example. When the original sputnik was launched by Russia, we were first told it had no military significance and was merely an interesting scientific experiment. Soon afterward, we were reminded that it meant that any part of the United States could be wiped out at one stroke. Again we were quickly reassured of the purely peaceful intent of the sputnik."

"THE SHOOTING down of the U-2 evoked from Russia a roar of possible retaliation. Soon afterward, we were told that it need not affect the approaching Summit. The following day we heard warnings that nations harboring American bases from which reconnaissance-planes operated would be violently attacked with missiles. Then Mr. Khrushchev assured one and all that when President Eisenhower visited Russia he'd guarantee there would be no overt action."

"Then the bitter collapse of the Summit, the withdrawal of the invitation, the thundering two-hour news conference of gross insults. On to East Germany went Khrushchev where suddenly the tempest subsided in a statement that in the interests of peace and despite the Summit collapse, he would not implement this threat to force the Allies out of Berlin."

And so on. Chilling. The world or much of it, is indeed living a Pavlov Dog's life.

JOSEPH MICHAELS, who spent a lifetime in Moscow for N. B. C. in 1959 and 1960, wonders what will happen if UN really took Khrushchev up on his invitation to host an Assembly Session in Moscow.

"The more than one thousand delegates and about fifteen hundred newsmen would have to share four telephone lines out of Moscow," he said. "All outgoing calls, assuming your turn came, would be monitored. All outgoing messages, including radio broadcasts, would have to be censored. There is a Soviet law prohibiting the export of newsreel and television film."

"MOSCOW HAS only four hotels with more than 400 rooms. Leningrad has two. There are no newspapers permitted except Communist papers. There are no restaurants that offer anything except Russian cooking. Some have names denoting Hungarian, Bulgarian, Polish and Chinese origin, but the chefs who started them had limited visas and left the U. S. S. R. after three months. Their Russian replacements went back to Russian cooking."

"And try to get room service, or ice... even in the dead of winter."

A WIRE SERVICE, showing no mercy for broadcasters who might have to rush the news on the air, began a recent story: "The first rocket in the super-secret Samos Sky-spy series—satellites expected to outdo the U-2 at scanning Russia's heartland—shot skyward today."

You don't shay? Shoulda shot it Saturday.

WISHFUL THINKING EVERGREEN, Ala. (UP)—Two Alabama congressmen praising candidate Lyndon B. Johnson the United States" and after he was corrected, Rep. George Grant also introduced Johnson as "the next president."

Camp Fire Goals Are High

Caring. About herself and others — about her country's natural resources. This is the keynote of the current Camp Fire Girls National project "She Cares — Do You." The local Palm Springs Council of Camp Fire and Blue Birds is sponsored by the Community Chest. Members in this community, together with participants in more than 3,000 communities from coast to coast, are taking an active part in conserving the country's resources: plant and animal life and minerals. This long-range program is now in its second year and so far thousands of young trees and seedlings have been planted.

"The goals of the project are twofold," said Council President, Walter H. Reuning. "Our first goal is to provide an active service to this great nation by having girls take part in community activities that promote the wise use of natural resources. The second goal is to help Camp Fire Girls develop an awareness of what makes this country sound."

Rev. Reuning said he hoped that both girls and adults in the Palm Springs area would join Camp Fire Girls now and take part in this vital project.

"Camp Fire is open to all girls from second grade through senior high school," he explained. "Adults — both men and women — are welcome to join the Camp Fire family as volunteers and have fun and develop new skills while helping the girls to carry out their program."

Last year in this area more than 80 girls participated in the Blue Birds and Camp Fire Program.

Fourteen adult leaders supervised the activities of eight well-organized groups. This year the parochial and public schools of the community have been contacted in each neighborhood, soliciting additional girls for newly organized groups. Parents of participating girls and other adults are needed for staffing as leaders, and as committee members.

A leadership training program is being planned for new leaders at the Lutheran Church, 1020 East Ramon Road, on Wednesday, October 19. The morning session from nine to twelve noon will be devoted to training for Blue Bird leadership. The afternoon program from 12:30 to 3 o'clock p.m. will involve Camp Fire leadership.

Adults interested in serving on administrative committees are invited to visit this program at any convenient time during the day. "The year's program will include more than conservation of natural resources," said Rev. Reuning. "All members will engage in a multitude of activities that will provide fun while helping the girls to develop their individual spheres of interest."

Adult volunteers, caring about newcomers in town who might like to become members of the Camp Fire family, will have a series of "let's-get-acquainted" coffee klatches. Some of these coffee and cake sessions will take place during the day, but one or two are planned for evenings so men may attend.

To learn about the wise use of human resources — always a part of the Camp Fire Program — girls will be carrying out activities that stress health and safety measures.

For example: Blue Birds, junior members of the organization, will be learning the rules of safe bicycle riding. Camp Fire Girls, the organization's intermediate members, will be checking their homes for safety against fire. Before doing this, they will consult with Warren Heath, Fire Marshal, on fire hazards in the home.

"As the girls carry out the many activities of the Camp Fire program, they will be adding further emphasis to the organization's motto, 'Give Service,' said Rev. Reuning.

B. W. Club's County Fair on Monday

Fresh corn on the cob, hot dogs, peanuts and popcorn and all the things that make a County Fair an all-American institution, will be found this evening, when Palm Springs Business Women's Club holds its gala County Fair Night, in the warehouse at 4101 Matthew Drive. Besides food, the many booths will offer games and a fortune teller.

Virgie Dragicevich heads up the committee in charge of the Fair, assisted by other club members.

All members, guests and their children are invited to attend.

Mrs. Donahue added interest with pictures of current styles and methods of curling, to obtain results best suited to features, complexion and personality of the individual.

Refreshments of gold cake and coffee were served following the closing ritual.

Birthday Party Is Surprise For Doug Bunn

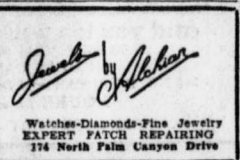

Doug Bunn was honored guest at a surprise birthday party, given by Jerry Brittingham and Barry Holdsworth at the West Arenas Road apartment home of the former.

The party was to have been a surprise for Bud Taylor who also celebrated a birthday Wednesday but Bud was unable to attend due to illness.

With the pretense of going to drive-in with their small daughter, Mrs. Bunn induced her husband to stop by the Brittingham residence, en route, supposedly on business, and found the group gathered outside waiting to spring the surprise.

Barbecued steaks were cooked outdoors and served with garlic bread and salad, topped off with a huge birthday cake.

Guests included Messrs. and Mmes. Earl Cordrey, Bob Lather, George Ringwald, Milton Jones and Pat Moser.

Purpose of the Motorcade is to assist local campaign organizations in their activities, appearing at parades and rallies, escorting candidates and distributing campaign materials.

Visit Friends in Hollywood

Former vaudevillians Stan and Marion Sayles have returned to their Palm Desert home from a visit with Jimmie and Mildred Mulcay, the well-known harmonica duo at their Hollywood home.

The Sayles also renewed their friendship with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anson, who have returned to the coast after several years in Chicago. Anson was one of the first of the big time disc jockeys, formerly with KFWE.

No-Bake Treat

Date-orange logs are a no-bake confection. Beat one 8-ounce package of cream cheese until soft. Add 1 cup of brown sugar and beat well. Blend in 1/2 cup of finely chopped dates and 2 teaspoons of grated orange rind. Stir in 2 1/2 cups of quick cooking rolled oats, uncooked. Chill dough. Shape into logs, roll in chopped nuts and refrigerate until ready to serve.

Bewitching Dessert

A colorful Orange Frost dessert is sure to steal the scene on Halloween when served at a "Trick or Treat" party. To serve it as pie, simply pour a mixture of whipped orange-flavored gelatin and chilled vanilla pudding into a pie shell and decorate with Halloween candies. Use the same filling but vary the decoration to make Orange Frost Tarts, or serve it in compotes as a chilled pudding.

Orange Frost Pie

1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix
2 cups milk
1 package (3-oz.) orange-flavored gelatin
Combine pudding mix and milk in saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat. Pour into bowl. (To avoid surface film, place waxed paper directly on surface of hot pudding.) Chill.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cold water. Chill until slightly thickened. Set bowl firmly in ice and water. Whip gelatin with egg beater until fluffy and thick.

Add chilled pudding gradually to the fluffy gelatin, beating after each addition until well blended. Pour into pie shell. Chill until firm (about 1 hour). Makes 8 to 10 servings.

School Slate Accent on Soviet Union

Geography, History To Receive Added Attention in Classes

POMONA (UP) — The State Board of Education has decided to put heavier emphasis on history and geography in the social study program for California public schools—including a more intensive study of the Soviet Union and its role in the modern world.

THE BOARD, MEETING here last week, also agreed to concentrate on at least two countries of the Asian and African continents in the social studies program to better enable the students to understand the problems of undeveloped countries.

The greater emphasis of history and geography will apply particularly to junior and senior high schools.

THE BOARD APPROVED a series of unifications of school districts, contingent on actual votes of the residents of the areas.

Approved were: —Unification of the Azusa-Gladstone Elementary Districts and their portions of the Citrus High School district.

—Unification of the Glendora elementary School District, with its share of the Citrus High School District.

PUC AUTHORIZES TAHQUITZ WATER

LOS ANGELES — The California Public Utilities Commission has authorized Byron J. Walters, doing business as Tahquitz Lake Water Company to serve the Forrest Lake Estates area, approximately 1 1/2 miles west of Idyllwild in the San Jacinto Mountains on the Banning - Idyllwild Highway.

The company was restricted to serving units 1, 2 and 3 of the Forrest Lake Estates subdivision, being developed by the company, and ordered to continue to furnish water to the so-called Hoffman customers on an emergency basis until the P.U.C. Cove County Water District can provide water to them.

SERVICE TO THE Buckhorn Camp and the golf course in the area was authorized only on a surplus water basis through metered connections. Because the company's water supplies are limited, the Commission required installation of meters on all active customers' service connections by February 1. The company also was restricted from extending its present service area without further order of the Commission.

THE COMMISSION authorized a $30 - a year minimum charge and set the following monthly metered rates. First 300 cubic feet or less...$2.50. Next 700 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet...$5.00. Next 1,000 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet...$2.25. Over 2,000 cubic feet, per 100 cubic feet...$2.20.

Mountbatten Joins 'Clan'

--He's a Kenya Clubber

Lord Louis Mountbatten, cousin of the Queen of England and extremely close to the royal family, is the latest to become a charter member of the Mount Kenya Safari Club of Kenya, British East Africa.

Ray Ryan, co-founder of the club with William Holden, arranged a tribal ceremony for Lord Mountbatten when he arrived at club headquarters on the slopes of Mount Kenya early this week.

A cablegram received by Ryan at his El Mirador Hotel yesterday brought him the glad tidings that the Lord Mountbatten membership rites came off without a hitch.

Participating in the ceremonies were members of the Kikuyu, Maasai and Chuka tribes. Dancing drummers of the latter tribe performed a spirited dance while a sculptured gold elephant adorned plaque, symbolic of membership, was presented to Lord Mountbatten. With him during his club visit was his sister, Lady Brabourne.

Hoof Power

JACKSON, Ohio (UPI) — Even in this age of missiles, jets and automation the ox driver's call still can be heard in Ohio—at least on one farm near here.

Herman and Carl Swaney, a father and son team, run a thriving logging business on their 156-acre farm. They use two or four yoke of oxen, saying the oxen are more efficient than mechanical equipment. The big work steers run about a ton apiece, making for "real power" according to the Swaney's.

Armed Forces Employees Set For Pay Hike

Saund Reports
On Plan to Raise
Civilian Payroll

WASHINGTON — Approximate-ly 250 civilian employees of the Air Force and the Navy in the 29th Congressional District are scheduled to receive wage in-creases in the near future, Con-gressman D. S. Saund announced today.

Saund was advised that 182 blue collar workers of the Air Force (not under civil service) at March Air Force Base near Riverside will receive an increase of 7 cents per hour effective during the first pay period following Oct. 13. The information was provided to Saund by the Army - Air Force Wage Board.

THE WAGE HIKE was awarded to the non-skilled workers because of a recent rise in the cost of living, the Wage Board noted. In Imperial County, approximate-ly 65 ungraded civilian employees of Navy Department are sched-uled for an average hourly in-crease of 9 cents, Saund was in-formed by the Naval Office of Industrial Relations. This pay in-crease will become effective for the first pay period after Oct. 22.

THE CIVILIAN workers are em-ployed at the El Centro Naval Auxiliary Landing Field. The Office of Industrial Rela-tions told the Westmorland Con-gressman that the decision to grant the increase was based upon a survey of recent pay boosts which have been granted by private industry in the San Diego area. The El Centro base is an auxiliary of the Naval Air Station at North Island.

Education Topic For October's Quiz on Census

LOS ANGELES — Questions will be asked in the October Current Population Survey to deter-mine how many children are en-rolled in school, level of school-ing, and similar facts, it was an-nounced today by Director Leon-ard C. Isley of the Census Bu-reau's regional field office at Los Angeles.

A number of families in the Current Population Survey sample panel will be asked special ques-tions on consumer plans to pur-chase automobiles, television sets, washing machines, and refrigera-tors. This is part of a quarterly survey being made at the request of the Federal Reserve Board for use in a national study of con-sumer buying trends.

The questions on education and consumer buying plans are in ad-dition to the regular inquiries on employment and unemployment which are asked each month in the Current Population Survey. The Current Population Survey will be conducted locally and in 329 other areas of the country during the week of October 17.

Hearing Slated For Sunair-- Charlesworth

Probable date for a hearing on the proposed formation of the Sunair - Charlesworth Fire Pro-tection District has been deter-mined by the Board of Supervis-ors for Nov. 14, with an election date of Dec. 27.

A hearing was scheduled this week, but the proceedings were abandoned when it was discover-ed that by mistake the petition had been made for a different type of district than was intended.

COUNTY COUNSEL Ray Sulli-van said the presently determin-ed boundaries would hold for any type of district, it is merely a matter of a new hearing for the changed type of district.

Sullivan suggested that some consideration be given to annex-ing to the Cathedral City Fire Protection District which is adja-cent to the proposed Sunair-Charlesworth district boundaries, making one large district.

"WE PREFER NOT to annex," responded R. P. Hollister. "The Cathedral City district does abut our boundaries immediately on the east, and geographically we are one community, but we're not united as one. We prefer to re-main outside the Cathedral City district."

He observed also that the C. C. district has its fire hydrants in-stalled and under annexation it might be difficult to get capital funds for installation this year or equipment for the new Sunair-Charlesworth area.

Water is to be furnished the proposed new district by the Cath-edral City Water Company, and fire equipment and service by the Forestry Service. The district's first taxes will be used primarily for installation of fire hydrants. Hollister said a 50 per cent re-duction in fire insurance basic rates is anticipated.

To the Point

BURLINGTON, Vt. (UPI) — Lt. Gov. Robert S. Babcock, candi-date for the Republican nomi-nation for governor, asked his former political science students at the University of Vermont for campaign support "whether you flunked my courses or not."

He said, "I hope you will re-member me. I am only a little balder and a little faster, and probably not nearly so wise."

SENATE, ASSEMBLY SWITCH HOT ISSUE

By JERRY REYNOLDS
SACRAMENTO (AP) — Should the voters of California change the state's system of government at the Nov. 8 general election?

That is the question before the voters in Proposition 13—the so-called Senate reapportionment plan sponsored by Frank G. Bonelli, chairman of the Los An-geles County Board of Supervisors.

THE LEGISLATURE now is set up under the "federal plan" em-bodied in Congress. It is an Assembly whose membership is chosen according to population, such as the House of Representa-tives in Congress, and a Senate chosen according to geographical district, as the U. S. Senate.

The Bonelli plan would change this so that both houses of the legislature would be divided, more or less, according to population.

It would leave the Assembly as it is, with 31 assemblymen chosen from Los Angeles County because of the heavy population there, six from San Francisco County, six from Alameda County, on down to the more sparsely populated areas in which there is one as-semblyman for as many as 10 counties.

THE PLAN would change the Senate, which now permits no more than one senator per county, to a breakdown under which Los Angeles County would have seven senators and several other coun-

BOYS, GIRLS STATE DELEGATES FETED BY DHS LEGION

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — A combined meeting and potluck din-ner by American Legion Auxiliary Unit 763 and American Legion Post 763 here, recently honored Boys' State delegate Mike Craft and Girls' State delegate Patti Patzner.

The delegates reported on their state meetings this summer. Miss Patzner was jointly sponsored by the Desert Hot Springs and Palm Springs Legion Auxiliary units, and Craft was sponsored by Amer-ican Legion Post 763.

In a business meeting preced-ing the program, presided over by acting auxiliary president Mrs. Jessie M. Pittenger, unanimous votes were given for three officers. Names were Eva Jensen, histori-an, Anna B. Miller, marshal, and Helen Carson, executive commit-tee member.

ties would have two each. The remainder of the 40 Senate seats would be spread out to individual counties or groups of as many as nine counties per Senate seat.

So the question really becomes: Do the voters of California, of whom 40 per cent live in Los An-geles County, want the cities to dictate the legislature's passage of laws and money appropriations for the entire state?

UNDER THE BONELLI plan, the 13 southern counties — includ-ing San Luis Obispo, Kern, Tu-lare, Mono, Inyo and all counties south of them — would get 20 senators. This is a gain of eight over present Senate representation.

The northern 45 counties would get the other 20 senators at a loss of the eight new southern ones. The present federal system in California was adopted in the 1920s. An attempt to nullify it was turned down by the voters in 1948.

BONELLI'S PLAN to boost the South's strength in the legislature has met widespread opposition. Three of the four Los Angeles metropolitan newspapers oppose it; as does Los Angeles Mayor Norris Poulson. The ex-chairmen of both political parties, Republican George Milias, Gilroy, and Demo-cratic William A. Munnell, Los An-geles, called for a combined drive to defeat it.

A number of arguments have been raised over the issue. Bonelli's backers say the south is getting taxation without repre-sentation. They say that the south has 77 per cent of the voters and pays 81 per cent of the state sales taxes. However, state voter reg-istration figures show the southern 13 counties have 60 per cent of the state's voters.

OTHER REASONS advanced were cow county senators killed a tax bill that would have benefitted metropolitan counties, and south-ern doubts that the Senate's ma-jority would give needed water to the south as promised under the $1.75 billion water bond issue. San Diego legislators said a fight between the north and south over reapportionment would hurt the chances of the water bond issue.

T. V. NOTES

NEW YORK — UP — It is to be hoped that the National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences doesn't allow the Emmy Awards to become the victim of creeping expansion.

After several years in which the number of awards was virtually astronomical, the academy got the total down to a reasonable 21 for the past season. Now it announces that for the 1960-61 season the total will be 24, with the three additions covering supporting performances and the "program of the year." Twenty-four categories are not too alarming in themselves; the important thing is to be sure that a few more aren't added the following season, a few the next and so on.

Huskies Take Over Lead In Big Five Gridiron Race

Schloredt Out for Season

By United Press International
Washington's Huskies apparently had the Big Five race done up in a sack today but will have to go it now without Bob Schloredt, their ace quarterback who sustained a broken collarbone Saturday against UCLA.

A 38-yard field goal by George Fleming provided the margin of victory in the Huskies' 10-8 squeaker over UCLA in a conference crucial. The win gave Washington a 2-0 mark in the Big Five and kept Jim Owens' crew half-game ahead of Southern California which downed Cal for 27-10.

SCHLOREDT WAS INJURED late in the second period and watched the rest of the game with his arm in a sling while Bob River took over the signal-calling. Fleming's three-point came with 42 seconds left to play in the first half. Bob McKeta added a touchdown in the third period. The Bruins tallied in the final quarter in a pass by Bill Kilmer. Twice the Huskies turned back UCLA drives inside their 10 yard line. The game ended with fists flying.

In addition to USC's win over victory-starved California, Oregon downed Washington State, 21-12. San Jose State stunned Stanford, 24-20. Oregon State routed Idaho, 28-8 and Fresno State topped Cal Poly, 33-0, in leading games.

HAL TOBIN RACED 63 yards for one touchdown and Lynn Gasell went 42 yards to nail down another as the Trojans rallied to hand the Bears their fourth loss. Tobin's clutch dash wiped out a 10-7 California lead in the third period. Halfback Jerry Scottini played a fine game for the Bears but it wasn't enough as they blew the lead for the fifth straight weekend.

Oregon scored twice within 42 seconds during the last half to put Washington State out of business. A 31-yard pass from quarterback Dave Gross to Len Burnett shot the Ducks ahead, 13-12, with six minutes to play. The guard Mike Ross grabbed a deflected pass on the first scrimmage after the ensuing kickoff and ran it back 29 yards for another tally.

FULLBACK Johnny Johnson, a tough little guy to drag down, scored four touchdowns in San Jose State's conquest of Stanford. It was the fifth loss in as many starts for coach Jack Curtice's troopers who had been favored to win this one by two touchdowns. San Jose held a 21-0 lead at the half. The game ended with both rooting sections tangling on the field.

L.A. Group Picks Up $78,051 at Caliente

AGUA CALIENTE, Mexico (UPI) — A 10-man Los Angeles group combined to purchase the card Sunday which tabbed all six winners in the 5-10 handicapping for a $78,051 payoff. On Saturday six persons held tickets picking all six winners and each collected a $10,186.80 payoff.

Hunting Picture in California Changing

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A revolution of sorts is taking place in California's hunting areas.

It's a trend toward more hunting on private land, through paid clubs or "arrangements" with landowners, and less hunting on public lands.

The state's Fish and Game Department has been trying to buck the trend but Ben Glading, game management branch head, admits flatly: "We are fighting a losing battle."

ONE OF THE MAJOR REASONS: Almost 100 per cent hunting success for deer and bucks on private land, far more than the ratio for public land.

"Eventually we are going to have only two types of hunting," said Glading. "There will be private open only on a charge and there will be public."

The official said the state had reached that position already in waterfowl hunting and is heading that direction in the case of deer on the coast range.

Look at the figures:
In 1955, 28 per cent of the 187,000 pheasant hunters in California went to state cooperative, 7.6 per cent to community clubs, 1.4 per cent to licensed private clubs, 6 per cent to waterfowl management areas and 57 per cent to other areas, including the land of farmers.

FOUR YEARS LATER, in 1959, the licensed clubs had begun to

Krause Rolls to Upset Victory in Grand Prix Race

RIVERSIDE (UPI) — Billy Krause, a 27-year-old Long Beach machinist, overshadowed in the pre-race picks by a dazzling international field, won the $25,000 Sports Car Grand Prix easily Sunday in a car he'd never driven before.

It was Krause's first race in the feather-light, birdcage Maserati, but he handled it like it was part of him to break the track record en route to victory, worth $8,500.

His time for the 203-mile race was 2:13.10, bettering the course record set last year.

Two Lotus Monte Carlos — driven by top qualifier Dan Guerny of Riverside and England's Stirling Moss — were the favorites with the crowd of 80,000 that witnessed the Los Angeles Times-Mirror sponsored races. But they both dropped out in the first quarter of the 62-lap race because of mechanical difficulty.

The real race developed between Bob Drake of Hollywood, driving Old Yeller II, and Augie Pabst in a Corvette Scarab. Drake gained second spot, but was just five seconds ahead of the Milwaukee beer heir.

expand rapidly. Figures showed that 9.4 per cent of the hunters used these pay - for - hunting areas — an increase of 8 per cent.
Hunting on state cooperatives had fallen. Only 19.8 per cent of the hunters took advantage of the coops, a drop of 8.2 per cent. Waterfowl management areas fell to a percentage of 4.6 and the "other areas" classification showed a drop to 54.8 per cent of the hunters.

The availability of land to hunters of ducks and geese has just about leveled off. Of more than 177,000 hunters, it's estimated that last year 51 per cent of the birds were shot on private clubs, involving 27 per cent of the hunters.

AND ON THE COAST deer range, Glading said that pay - for - hunting areas showed almost 100 per cent success in bagging a buck while the statewide average is around one deer for six hunters. And it's going to get worse as the state's population grows and more people look around for recreational areas and spots to bag their game.

A 1959 publication of the F&G Department pointed out that between 1955 and 1970, California's civilian population will gain four times as many young adults as were gained between 1940 and 1955. These are potential hunters. The department said there is a possibility that there will be 1,102,000 licensed hunters and 2,130,000 anglers in California by 1970.

Sam Snead Picks Up West Virginia Prize

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (UPI) — The man who wasn't there won the West Virginia Open golf championship.

That man was Sam Snead, who was so convinced that his final round 3 - under - par 67 Sunday wasn't good enough that he packed up and left an hour and a half before Art Wall Jr. came in one stroke behind him.

Snead's 67 gave him a 15-under par total of 195 for the 54 holes while Wall, who was tied with Snead after 36 holes, wound up with 196 after a final round 68 on the par 70 Spring Valley Country Club course. It was Snead's ninth West Virginia Open title.

"I was lousy," said Snead after his last round while Wall and Arnold Palmer were still on the course. "I lost interest after that ninth hole." It was there he took a bogey five.

Snead flung his ball over a steep hill from the 18th green after finishing up. Upon learning Wall was two under par after 10 holes, the 48-year-old Snead departed for his home grounds at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., figuring Wall would overtake him.

Officials of the tournament were more than somewhat disturbed at Snead's abrupt departure, especially so when he wasn't around to accept his $1,200 first prize check from Gov. Cecil H. Underwood who helicoptered in for the ceremony.

For Wall, it was a tough pill to take. He appeared to have an excellent chance of overhauling Snead with eight holes to go and only one stroke behind — but he was unable to bag a single birdie on those final eight.

Casper Wins 3rd Straight at Costa Mesa

Cards 276 for 72 Holes to Finish Eight Under Par

COSTA MESA, Calif. (UPI) — "Gone fishin'."

That was the sign posted today by Bill Casper Jr., the relaxed golfer who picked up $2,000 Sunday in winning the Orange County Open, his third consecutive victory on the pro tournament trail.

The 29-year-old Casper, a rotund fellow who hugs 220 pounds around the golf course on a 5-foot - 11 frame, had a 72-hole total here of 276—eight under par—on the Mesa Verde Country Club course. He had a final round 68, two under par.

CASPER, in a four-way tie at 206 after three rounds, could have been beaten at the last moment by Charles Sifford, the Los Angeles National Negro Open champion, who was playing a final threesome behind Casper.

The cigar smoking Sifford needed a birdie two on the 18th hole to tie the Apple Valley, Calif., shotmaker. But Sifford missed by six inches a 30-foot birdie putt which would have thrown him into a tie and a sudden death play-off.

Casper said he did not feel any strain while waiting for Sifford to hole out.

"I'm always completely relaxed," he said, almost affronted by the question from a sports-writer.

WHEN ASKED WHAT his formula was — winning the Portland, Ore., and Hesperia, Calif., Opens just before this — he said, "I've just been playing well. I've been hitting the greens pretty good."

Casper, whose home is in Chula Vista, Calif., although he represents Apple Valley, Calif., said he was going fishing in the Pacific with some friends for yellowtail. He goes fishing frequently between tournaments to relax.

In third place behind Sifford and Casper was the defending Orange County champion, Jay Hebert, Lafayette, Ind.

Paul Richards Named AL Manager of Year

NEW YORK (UPI) — Paul Richards, whose Baltimore Orioles electrified the baseball world with a spectacular bid for the pennant, today was named the American League's "manager of the year" for 1960 by the United Press International.

Richards received 14 votes of a possible 24 from UPI's board of baseball experts, made up of writers in each of the eight American League cities.

Cookie Lavagetto, who led the Washington Senators to a fifth place finish, was runnerup to Richards in the balloting with seven votes, while Casey Stengel of the pennant-winning New York Yankees received three votes.

Under Richards' leadership, the Orioles wound up in second place with an 89-65 record for their highest finish since returning to the American League in 1954.

The 51-year-old Richards had the Orioles in first place as late as Sept. 9.

Richards, generally regarded the finest handler of pitchers in the game, has been managing in the majors 10 years. He piloted the Chicago White Sox from 1951 through 1954, leading them to fourth place on his first try and to third place on three other occasions.

He accepted the dual post of general manager and field manager of the Orioles on Sept. 14, 1954, and yielded the GM's job to Lee MacPhail prior to the start of the 1959 season. Under Richards' guidance, the Orioles jumped four notches — from sixth place to second — between the 1959 and 1960 campaigns.

Varsity At Home JV There

Play starts for keeps this week as Riverside County High School football teams swing into league action after four weeks of practice non-league games.

Palm Springs, Banning, Yucaipa, Twentynine Palms, Indio and Coachella move into Desert Valley League play and Perris, Hemet, Elsinore, Beaumont, San Jacinto and Fallbrook start the De Anza League schedule.

PALM SPRINGS Indians entertain Indio Friday night in their first DVL game. Coachella meets Twentynine Palms, and Banning and Yucaipa clash in the first round.

The improving Indians came to life last Friday night when they dumped Hemet High 21 to 13 for their first win of the season. Perfect team work featured the play of the Tribe in their fourth practice game and they will be rated a contender in the 1960 DVL race.

INDIO HIGH, a surprising factor in this year's race, has won two and lost two. They edged Calipatria 6-0; lost to San Jacinto, 7-35, won from Blythe, 6-2 and lost to Perris, 6-35.

Palm Springs lost to El Centro, 0-14; to Perris, 9-19; to San Jacinto, 7-20 and won from Hemet, 21-13.

Against the same two rivals, Perris and San Jacinto, Indio has a past performance mark of 13 to 70 and Palm Springs, 16 to 39, giving the Tribe an edge in statistics.

WHILE COACH Dick Bunting's Indians are getting ready for DVL Varsity play, coach Cal Farley and his Junior Varsity swing into action Thursday night in JV league play. The Papoose outfit goes to Indio for their first game.

In games to date, the local JVs have scored 107 points against six for the opposition.

Ray Roberts increased his lead with two touchdowns last Thursday to head the Jayvee scoring parade with 54 points.

FULLBACK Wayne Bussberg added one against Hemet to tie Jim Alexander at two TDS and a PAT at 13; Ernie Reyes with a PAT ran his total to nine; Sam Alexander, Eric Teitelbaum and Exell James have a touchdown each for six points each.

Blythe coach Bunting's Varsity a Cal Farley's Jayvees are favorites to take this weekend's DVL opening games.
